CRACOW-CZESTOCHOWA UPLAND ON THE TRAIL OF POLISH KINGS

22 June 2018

09:00 – assembly at the International Conference Center in Katowice
09:15 - Departure
20:00 - Return

The area between Cracow and Czestochowa, known also as Cracow-Czestochowa Upland is one of the most beautiful places in Poland and it's a real cradle of Polish culture. Picturesque, Silesian castles attract with their charm thousands of visitors who would like to experience the atmosphere of medieval times.

BOBOLICE CASTLE

The Bobolice castle is located on a scenic, rocky hill. It is one of the most famous fortresses lying along the Trail of the Eagles' Nests, in the center of the Kraków-Częstochowa Upland. Built by Casimir the Great in XIVth century, Bobolice castle was one of the most important fortresses. A colony was built at the same time as castle. It was inhabited by merchants, craftsmen and farmers. An Inn, a forge and a brewery were situated in the lower part of the castle, where a vivid life passed by. Today castle areas are great place for strolls, festivals and picnics. Amateurs of rocky sceneries love it for its calm breath-taking views.

BIRÓW MOUNTAIN

Mount Birów rises 461 m above sea level. It is one of the characteristic hills in the area of Podzamcze and Ogrodzieniec. The hill with a good view on the surrounding area was already a Neolithic settlement. Especially, the top parts of the hill, which form a depression surrounded by limestone outcrops, have important defensive qualities. Today, we can see a reconstruction of the Slavic settlement here.

PODZAMCZE. THE RUINS OF OGRODZIENIEC CASTLE IN PODZAMCZE.

Ogrodzieniec Castle is the largest castle of the Kraków-Częstochowa Upland and, undoubtedly, one the most beautiful castles in Poland. It is located on Mount Janowski at the heart of the Upland. Fantastic rock formations, which were used to construct the castle, make the majestic ruins even more picturesque. The castle is situated in the central part of the Polish Upland and it is easy to get there. The red marked Eagles' Nests Trail runs nearby. At the castle we will visit a museum, where an exhibition on Polish history and castles is shown. Multiple historical presentations in castle's armory and in a torture chamber will make you feel an unique ambiance of the past. The museum's exhibition will interest both younger and mature guests.

LUNCH AT KNIGHT'S INN

Situated at the bottom of Podzamcze Castle, Knight's Inn will make you feel welcome with old-polish warm style of its interior. Cracking woods of fireplace, traditional Polish cuisine (everything prepared at the spot) will take you into fantastic adventure right in the middle of the magical past.
